

The Mystery of the Vanishing

Princess

One fine day a princess was playing in her garden. It was the happiest day of her life. But then a guy jumped out of a bush and took the princess by the arm and threw some pills in her mouth. He held her mouth closed until she ate them. Then she fell asleep.

He picked her up and carried her to his van. In the van there were two bears. They kept an eye on her. When she awoke she found herself in a small room with a bed and a tap with a glass next to it. The bed was black with a black pillow and blanket. She walked over to it. Then suddenly a man that she had not seen before came into the room.

Then the man said, “Hello. My name is happy”. “My name is Susan. What am I doing here? And why did you kidnap me?” Then Susan pulled her leg up and kicked Happy. Then a guy came in and said`, You are going to be here for a wile`,` , Why`. `` Because we wont money and we wont some from your country`. Then the men left her.

The next day happy came back. He tired the little princess up. Then happy said,`` Your dad has paid us. But I have a something to ask you. Can me and my dog come and live with you``,`` What dog``. Then a dog came in the room. Then Susan said,`` Yes but only if you give the money back``. Happy said yes. So the dog and happy went to live with the princess.
