

The International School of Stuttgart is a non-profit Kindergarten through 12th grade, CIS and NEASC accredited, IB World School offering an international curriculum to a student body of about 700 from over 30 nations. Among its strengths are its student-centered and holistic approach to learning, its commitment to professional development, and its emphasis on student pastoral care.

For the school year 2010/2011, ISS is looking to hire a qualified

Korean Mother Tongue Teacher

for grades 6-10 on a 400 EUR basis.

The successful candidate needs to have a sense of fulfillment from growing and learning with children, and needs to contribute to the continuing development of our Mother Tongue Program and multiculturalism throughout the whole school.

we are looking for an individual:

- who has a qualified Korean teacher status and is experienced working with children.
- who preferably has experience with the Middle Years Program (MYP)
- who is motivated and enthusiastic about teaching Korean literature, language and culture
- who can support our students in accessing the school's curriculum through Korean
- who can collaboratively plan with mainstream teachers
- who can liaise and consult with the Lower School Mother Tongue Program to provide continuity
- who can keep Korean materials up to date and order in collaboration with the upper school librarian and upper school mother tongue coordinator
- who can communicate in English

Applications, in English please, including a letter of application, résumé/curriculum vitae, certificates, statement of your educational philosophy as well as references should be submitted to HR@issev.de or to the address below. Applications will be handled with discretion.

Carola Bayer-Lange, Human Resources
International School of Stuttgart e.V., Sigmaringer Str. 257, 70597 Stuttgart, Germany